Bortola I wakes up at 1 o'clock in the morning and just chill out for couple of minutes then gets out of bed 30 minutes later. if am lucky there is water I go straight to the shower and clean up. After 20 minutes in the shower I put on my clothes, took my bag and go out to the café. Now the time is over 2 o'clock, I may have class at this time but I do not go to class at 2 o'clock rather I will go after 30 min late or just miss the class . it is like am cursed to not to go at 2 o'clock Now the cafe is about to close so I start running. The good news am not the only one running, a lot of students on their way. Above all no one want to miss breakfast because it is the only food they able to eat. After I eat my meal I go to class if I have one or just go straight to lab where I can connected to the world. This is our life cycle doing the same thing all over again and again. It is like we have been programmed to do so and no other things to do.	Black screen INT. Most of the student in a class are bored and some of them sleeps or their attention is brought away before even class started. I can't blame students because they have many situations that distracts them. Lab is where I go most of the time , because of internet connection which helps me to work on my own job "Freelancing" so it keeps me busy and making me sit there for like the whole day. Again I go cafe for launch just for tasting the food then we go to lounge to drink coffee with friends and enjoy a little time together. For like most of the student the time between 7 o'clock and 10 o'clock is second round bed time, everyone is running to the dorm and I am one of them. The funny thing is no one has a courage to break out of this cycle of life. 10 o'clock up to 12 o'clock is dinner time every one heads to café even if it is known that it is hard to eat but I try some gursha's and that is it, dinner is served. I go out of the campus with friends enjoying and playing some games or even reserve dinner sometimes.	EXT.
